

5th Annual Students 4 Students National Leadership Conference

Hi ASLA Members,

We hope you're all looking forward to this session and for those graduating at the end of this year we wish you the best of luck in the final stretch!

The S4S team have been busy in the last few weeks and working hard to make this years conference an even more inspirational and fun event.

Remember early bird registrations close 1st of September!

Sign up to the Australian Student Leader Association in 2 minutes for free and save $20 on your registration! Register as an early bird before the 1st of September and save another $20.

Jump onto our website and find out more: www.studentleaders.org.au

Speaker Updates

We have recently locked in a 3rd keynote speaker with incredible experience in the news and media industry that has kindly agreed to share his Vision and journey with us.

Gaven Morris - Head of ABC News 24

Gaven Morris has been responsible for the introduction of Australian Broadcasting Corporation's latest multi-channel offering, ABC News 24.

He has had a long career in Australia and internationally in broadcast news.

Gaven worked at the ABC as a reporter/producer for the 7.30 Report in the mid-90s. He then moved overseas, holding senior editorial roles at CNN in London and helping establish Al Jazeera English in Doha, rising to the position of Head of Planning for that international television news service.

He returned to the ABC in 2008, filling the newly-created position of National Editor, Continuous News, supervising the ABC's efforts to deliver news content 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

5th Annual Students 4 Students National Leadership Conference

Dr. Lindsay Oades- Director of the Australian Institute of Business Wellbeing at the Sydney Business School.

Dr Lindsay Oades, Director of the Australian Institute of Business Wellbeing, has formal training and experience across Clinical, Health, Coaching and Positive Psychology combined with formal training and experience in business/management.

Lindsay is internationally recognised for work in mental health recovery, measurement of psychological recovery, and the development of the Collaborative Recovery Model, as model for recovery oriented service provision.

More recently, Lindsay's work relates to workplace wellbeing, applications of positive psychology and its relationship to business performance. Lindsay has over 60 refereed journal publications and book chapters, and has been a keynote speaker in multiple countries. Lindsay is co-author of the 2011 book "Psychological Recovery".

Networking Event

Our Networking Event will be taking place on Saturday the 24th of September and will be held in the University's new social facility where everyone can relax and have the chance to meet like-minded peers from around Australia.

The conference will finish with a bang again this year with a Gala Dinner at Dunes – an amazing venue in a spectacular beachfront location. The Gala Dinner will feature live local entertainment and will support an incredible charity that helps Wollongong youths to reach their potential.

Why attend the 2011 S4S Conference?

- Promote personal growth and leadership development
- Provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life
- Network and gather ideas for Service & Community Projects
- Receive certification for extra curricular student participation and development

5th Annual Students 4 Students National Leadership Conference

Fun Links:

A video of how youth at schools are making a positive change to the world today:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oROsbaxWH0M&feature=related>

This is a link to Rapper Jay Z's video who has chosen to actively support MTV's 'Think' initiative. He then went on to receive an award from the United Nations at a global leadership gala speech:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1VvmrgreNb0&feature=related>

We would also like to thank our sponsors that are supporting the conference this year:

